

CMCAS

Capital Markets Credit Analysts Society

LOU CARACCIO, is the US Regional Head of Capital Markets Risk Management for Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce where he has responsibility for the Region's trading market risk, credit risk and operational risk functions. He supervises a group of market and credit risk professionals that cover US trading floor activities for CIBC. A graduate of the City University of New York with a degree in accounting, Lou has over has twenty years experience with CIBC having had past responsibilities for the region's Internal Audit department and Credit Administration and Loan Accounting department. His credit team concentrates on counterparty analysis, adjudication and exposure monitoring of broker dealers, investment advisors and regulated funds that transact with the Bank's treasury, fixed income and equities based businesses.